

[Unofficial translation]

Israeli Defence Forces

Order No. 1818

Order regarding Security Provisions (Amendment No. 64)
(Detention Report for Minors)
(Judea and Samaria) 2019

Under my authority as commander of the IDF forces in the area, and based on my opinion that the following is necessary for maintaining the security of the area, public order in the area and public peace in the area, I hereby order:

Addition of Article 136E

1. In the Order regarding Security Provisions [consolidated version] (Judea and Samaria), 2009, the following will be added after Article 136D:

“ Detention report 136E

- (a) In a remand hearing for a minor in accordance with Article 43 of the Order, or in a subsequent appeal of such a hearing, the court may, for special reasons in writing, order the production of a written detention report by a staff officer for Welfare Affairs at the Civil Administration, or any official appointed by the latter for this purpose.
- (b) The detention report is to include the defendant's personal circumstances, the impact of detention, the alternatives to detention or release, or a recommendation regarding special conditions for release on bail and the monitoring of these conditions.
- (c) A detention report is not a sentencing report in accordance with the provisions of Article 148 of the Order.

- (d) A copy of a detention report received in accordance with this Article, will be delivered to the prosecutor and to the defendant's lawyer, if the defendant has a lawyer, and the court will hear argument regarding the content of the report. The court may also order that a copy be delivered to the defendant, and the court may order, in special circumstances, in accordance with reasons provided by the staff officer for Welfare Affairs, or on the court's own initiative, that the contents of the report, in whole or in part, not be disclosed to the legal representatives.
- (e) If a detention report is not submitted in accordance with this Article, this will not constitute grounds for the continuation of the minor's detention"

Effect

- 2. This order will take effect on 10 October 2019.

Title

- 3. This order is to be titled "Order regarding Security Provisions (Amendment No. 64) (Detention report for minors) (Judea and Samaria).

1 July 2019

Nadav Padan

General Commander of IDF forces in Judea and Samaria